CIVIL WAR DAYS

SATURDAY, MAY 14
FROM 11 AM UNTIL 2 PM
Front Lawn at Centerville Library (rain or shine)

- Experience the camp life of a Union soldier at this living-history event.
- Formation drills, bayonet stacks, campfire, and rifle firing by re-enactors of the 6th Ohio Volunteer Infantry.
- Music by Steve Ball, Union soldier guitarist with songs from the period.
- Games and activities for families and costumed personae complete the day.

This program is a collaboration between the Washington-Centerville Library and the Centerville-Washington Twp. Historical Society in observance of the Civil War's Sesquicentennial.

The 6th OVI's
 next re-enactment
 will be Saturday,
 May 21, at Sharon
 Woods Historical
 Village for their Civil War
 Living History and Battle.
